

Accountable Care Partnerships (ACPs)

Context

There are mounting financial pressures on the NHS and traditional care models may not be fit for the future. One particular structural reform that has been advocated is to align incentives across care providers better and move towards a stronger outcomes focus through Accountable Care Partnership (ACP) models. Leadership representatives across the ICHP and UCLP geography have expressed an interest in receiving training and support for moving towards ACP models of care. This programme will be delivered jointly by ICHP and UCLP.
